06.11.18 (B/L/D) Mexico City

Today we will explore magnificent Mexico City, built by the Spanish on the ruins of Tenochtitlan, the Old Aztec capital. The city's historical heart is its vast central square, or El Zocalo. On our tour we will have the opportunity to visit the square, along with the Metropolitan Cathedral, which is the largest church in all of Latin America. We will travel along the famous boulevard Paseo de la Reforma, built during the short lived reign of Emperor Maximilian to connect the main square and his castle in Chapultepec.

We will also visit the National Palace, which hosts Diego Rivera's murals depicting the history of Mexico and is one of the oldest government seats in the world. Our last stop for the day is the Museum of Anthropology, followed by some time to explore the treasures of the Aztec culture at one of the finest archaeological museums in the world. Lunch today is at a local restaurant and dinner this evening is at the hotel.

07.11.18 (B/L) Mexico City

Today we visit the Teotihuacan Pyramids and Guadalupe Shrine. The pyramids are located 50 km north east of Mexico City and include the massive Pyramid of the Sun and Pyramid of the Moon, which dominate the skyline of the complex. This was once the country's biggest ancient city and capital of the Aztec people, who ruled over the largest empire in the pre-Hispanic era. Guarded by mountains, this magnificent city is thought to have been founded early in the first century A.D. and reached its peak around 500 A.D., when its influence extended down to Guatemala and as far north as present day Texas. With the help of a local guide, we have time to stroll down the 'Avenue of the Dead'. Uncover its many wonders and imagine what life must have been like nearly 2000 years ago. We also visit the Basilica de Guadalupe, Latin America's most revered religious shrine, where the Virgin of Guadalupe is said to have appeared before an Indian named Juan Diego in 1531 and an image of her was miraculously emblazoned on his cloak. We will have time to explore the New Basilica de Guadalupe (the Old Basilica, built in 1700, is slowly sinking) and to see Juan Diego's cloak. Afterwards we have lunch at a local restaurant and return to Mexico City in the afternoon.

Accommodation: Hotel Zocalo Central or similar

On arrival in Villahermosa we drive to Palenque to visit the archaeological site of Palenque, which is a World Heritage Site that is located 7 kilometres from Palenque and overlooks the swampy plains that stretch northward all the way to the Gulf Coast. Palenque flourished from A.D. 600 – 800, when its influence extended throughout the basin of the Usumacinta River. The site is surrounded by rainforest where toucans and howler monkeys live. It is made of some 500 buildings spread over 15 square kilometres, of which only a few have been excavated. We will explore the magnificent ruins, including the Temple of the Inscriptions, which is the tallest and stateliest of Palenque's buildings. We also inspect the Temple of the Sun and The Palace, with its maze of corridors and rooms. Our accommodation this evening is a retreat that has been inspired by the tropical forest and is located a few miles from spectacular landscapes, lakes and waterfalls. Dinner tonight is at the hotel.

The Puuc culture exhibited a highly decorative expression in their architecture. At Uxmal we will see the Pyramid of the Dwarf, the Nun's Quadrangle, the Governor's Palace and other sites, where beautiful stone relief masks and ceremonial patterns cover the facades. In Cabah we will be led through an ancient Maya White Path to discover the décor and stone art in the façade of Codz Pop temple, full of amazing masks and patterns. We enjoy lunch at a local restaurant near the sites. In the late afternoon we travel to our hotel in Merida for an overnight stay. Our hotel this evening is set in a restored Art Deco mansion. Merida Cathedral and Plaza Grande Square are located just two blocks away.

The city offers all kinds of attractions, hotels, restaurants, universities, modern hospitals, theatres, cinemas, zoo, aquarium, botanical gardens, museums and an incredible nightlife.
Upon arrival in Havana we are met and transferred to our hotel for a three night stay. 14.11.18 Havana

(B/L) Today we will get acquainted with Cuba's capital city by taking a guided walking tour through the crumbling splendour of the UNESCO World Heritage Listed Site, Habana Vieja (Old Havana). Wars and revolution have done little to damage its heritage, making it one of the finest examples of a Spanish colonial city anywhere in the Americas. We will first enjoy a short walking tour around Old Havana, including its most important squares and fortresses. We will then be picked up at the Plaza de Armas in our chauffeur-driven classic American car for a scenic drive along the Malecon seafront to the elegant suburb of Miramar, with a stop at Revolution Square. We enjoy a traditional Cuban lunch and a visit to the Ernest Hemmingway Museum, before being dropped off at our hotel.
The remainder of the day is at leisure.
Accommodation: Melia Cohiba or similar

15.11.18 Havana – Vinales - Havana

(B/L) Today we will travel to the west of Cuba to see the small village of Vinales in the Pinar del Rio province. Vinales is located in a valley of the same name. It possesses some of Cuba's most dramatic landscapes and is the world's best tobacco growing region. The beautiful, fertile valley is surrounded by unusual limestone outcrops known as Mogotes. A visit here is a great way of gaining an insight into life in rural Cuba. We will visit a working tobacco farm, where the local farmers hand roll cigars. Next we will be served a traditional Cuban lunch. In Vinales there is an included visit to the Mural de Prehistorica, where a history of evolution is painted in bright colours on the side of a Mogote. Afterwards we return to Havana.
Accommodation: Melia Cohiba or similar

- 16.11.18      Havana - Cienfuegos - Trinidad

We stop in Cienfuegos where we have a guided tour of this laid back maritime city known as the 'Pearl of the South'. We walk through the city's well preserved colonial centre and learn about its proud musical tradition and its famous musicians such as Benny More. Afterwards we follow the panoramic coastal road to Trinidad. Our hotel for the next two nights is situated outside of the city, alongside the finest and clearest bluewater beaches. Our stay at Brisas Trinidad del Mar includes a welcome cocktail and breakfast, lunch and dinner at the buffet or a la carte restaurants, a snack bar, as well as unlimited national drinks at one of the three hotel bars.

(B/L/D)            Trinidad is often referred to as the soul of Cuba and is usually considered one of the main highlights of the island. Today will include a walking tour of the main sights of the city. The city was founded in 1514 by the Spanish conquistador Deigo Velasquez and became a major centre for trading sugar and slaves for almost 200 years. The wealth generated by the land owners during this region's dark past is reflected by the well-restored colonial architecture which is found in Trinidad's colonial centre and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1988. After walking the cobble-stoned colonial heart of Trinidad we return to our hotel for lunch and an afternoon at leisure.
Accommodation: Brisas Trinidad del Mar or similar

There is also a museum here dedicated to his amazing life (entrance at own expense). We enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before continuing on to Havana for an overnight stay.
Accommodation: Melia Cohiba or similar
