Today we drive from Shanghai to Suzhou, which is known as "Venice of the East" and built around a grand canal. The city's many excellent classical gardens have entitled Suzhou the "Garden City". Our sightseeing today includes the Tiger Hill and Garden of the Master of the Nets. Tiger Hill, known also as Surging Sea Hill, is a large hillock covering over 3 acres and is 36 metres high. Climbing it, we will find a number of historical sites, some of which can be traced back over 2,500 years to the founding of Suzhou. Although the hill is relatively small it has a rich history. This complex is the largest and most intact collection of ancient structures of the Imperial Palace ever built.
