Varanasi - Delhi

Today there is an early morning departure before sunrise for a boat ride on the River Ganges, to witness the fascinating view of devotees thronging onto the ghats and offering their prayers. The boat ride on the holy River Ganges lasts for 2 hours and is over three miles in length. The western banks of the Ganges has a string of Ghats - the chain of stone steps, all built with pavilions, palaces and terraces, most of which are mainly used as Dharamsalas where the pilgrims stay during their visit to the holy city. At dawn, the Ghats are abuzz with activity. See the devotees performing their ablutions in the river or offering prayers to the rising sun and performing other religious rituals. A boat ride along the Ghats gives us great views of this activity. The sunrise on the Ganges is a soul-lifting experience. After the boat ride we walk through the narrow lanes of Varanasi. These narrow cobbled lanes have stories to tell with a mass of humanity passing through them daily, all looking for 'Nirvana' - a release from the cycle of rebirth.

We have a late breakfast at the hotel. In the early afternoon we transfer to the airport to board our flight to Delhi. Upon arrival in Delhi we are met and transferred to the hotel. Dinner tonight is at a local restaurant.

Accommodation: Royal Plaza Hotel

Visit the Birla (Laxi Narayan) Temple, with its many idols. In the afternoon we depart for Agra, which is 200kms away and approximately a five hour drive. Dinner tonight is at the hotel.

Agra

Breakfast at the hotel. This morning there is a half day sightseeing tour of Agra visiting the Taj Mahal and Fort. Visit the world famous Taj Mahal built by Shah Jahan in 1560 in memory of his Queen Mumtaz Mahal to enshrine her mortal remains. This architectural marvel is a perfectly proportioned masterpiece fashioned from white marble that stands testimony to the skill of 20,000 craftsmen brought together from Persia, Turkey, France and Italy and who took 17 years to complete this 'Love Poem in Marble'. Later visit the Agra fort containing the halls, private and public audience rooms and other palaces. Shah Jahan spent years of confinement at the hands of his son Aurangzeb, looking wistfully at the Taj Mahal from the Fort.

A brief visit is also made to the marble inlay workshop, where one can see the art that went into the inlay work at the Taj Mahal. This workshop has brought back this forgotten art style. Also enjoy a Tonga ride from Taj Bus Park to Taj and vice versa. The afternoon is at leisure. This evening there is an optional live drama show at Kalakriti 'Mohabbat-e-Taj'. Dinner tonight is at a local restaurant.

Agra – Samode

After breakfast at the hotel we depart for Samode, which is 275 kms away and approximately a six hour drive. There is a stop en route at Fatehpur Sikri, located 40kms from Agra. The deserted city of Fatehpur Sikri was built by Emperor Akbar in 1569, in honour of the great Saint Sheikh Salim Chisti who blessed Akbar and prophesized the birth of three sons to the heirless Emperor. Akbar used Fatehpur Sikri as his capital and the city was fully occupied for 14 years but slowly became deserted and ruined after Akbar left the city. Scarcity of water was the prime factor for the abandonment of this beautiful city. Visit the remarkably well-preserved, graceful buildings within the 'Ghost City' including the Jama Masjid, tomb of Salim Chisti, Panch Mahal Palace and other palaces that speak of the grandeur and splendour of the Mogul Empire at the height of its power. Later we drive to Samode and upon arrival check in at the hotel. Dinner this evening is at the hotel.

One of the major attractions in the museum is the portion known as the Armoury Museum housing an impressive array of weaponry - pistols, blunderbusses, flintlocks, swords, rifles and daggers. The royal families of Jaipur once used most of these weapons. Dinner this evening is at the hotel.

Within the palace are the Diwan-e-Aam or the 'Hall of Public Audience', the Diwan-e-Khas or the 'Hall of Private Audience' and the Sukh Niwas, the private chambers of the queens with windows having latticed screens so that the ladies could watch the proceedings of the royal court in privacy. There is also the Jai Mandir or the 'Temple of Victory', with its famed Sheesh Mahal, the scintillating 'Hall of Mirrors' Later we visit the Jantar Mantar, which is the largest stone and marble crafted observatory in the world. Situated near the gate of the city palace, the observatory has 17 large instruments, many of them still in working condition. The afternoon is at leisure. Dinner this evening is at the Spice Court restaurant with a folklore dance/performance.

Mumbai is also home to the glamour and intrigue of Bollywood, India's renowned movie industry. To truly experience Mumbai, all one has to do is wander through the myriad of neighbourhoods and markets, alive with the sights and sounds of this unique city. This multicultural metropolis is characterised by an eclectic mix of traditional huts and sky scrapers, age old customs as well as modern traditions. The city captures the spirit of change and diversity that is India today.

At the Churchgate Station we see the Dabbawalas, a unique tiffin delivery service run by over 5,000 semi-skilled workers, delivering lunch to corporate executives from their homes. Visit the Dhobi Ghat, an open laundry where Mumbai's 'dirties' are scrubbed, bashed, dyed and hung out to dry. It is a unique photography stop and well worth a visit. We also visit the Iskon Temple, devoted to Lord Krishna, in time for the noon Aarti. Continue to the colourful Crawford market and Flora fountain, a large bustling square in the heart of the city.
