With its picturesque location on a rocky outcrop between the beach and a lagoon, this area is a happy combination of history, good beaches, hassle-free tourism and fabulous fish and lobster. It is renowned for its series of charming Rathas and the spectacular carved relief depicting Arjuna's Penance. 11.11.23 Mahabalipuram – Pondicherry through the UNESCO World Heritage streetscape of Vysial Street, which is the remaining core of Hindu Tamil houses that maintain the earliest fusion with European style. Some of the houses in this traditional neighbourhood of rich merchants are 250 years old. We visit the recently restored Mahakavi Bharathiar Museum and research centre, where Tamil poet Bharathiar penned his masterpiece. We also visit the 500 year old Vedapureeswarer Temple and relish in the locally prepared traditional delicacies. Lunch today is at a French restaurant. Afterwards we visit the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Notre Dame Church, with its beautiful stained glass windows. Following this we visit the Pondicherry Museum, home to some of the most exquisite collections of architecture and sculpture. Later this afternoon we visit the handmade paper factory and enjoy a rickshaw ride in Pondicherry. We have an overnight stay at our hotel. Dinner this evening is at the hotel. We have an included lunch in Swamimalai with a bullock cart ride. We then visit a bronze factory in Kumbakonam. On arrival in Thanjavur we have a brief sightseeing tour of Tanjore Temple, palace, a veena painting and glass painting visit. Thanjavur is known as a place for art lovers, especially those who love temple architecture and the kings who erected these magnificent monuments. Accommodation: Chidambaram Vilas or similar

14.11.23 Chettinad – Madurai

(B/D) After breakfast we visit Chettinad Palace and Tile Factory. We explore the local area of Chettinad and Karaikudi. Karaikudi and 74 other villages comprise Chettinad, the homeland of the Nattukottai Chettiars. Their legacies are the fascinating houses that have to be seen to be believed. It also offers extensive antique shopping, weekly shandy (village market), a number of temples, numerous craftsmen working with wood and metal, silversmiths and goldsmiths, attractive textiles and most importantly the exciting Chettinad Cuisine. We also see some saree weaving and visit the Chettinadu Mansion, which was built in 1902. This 100 year old architectural marvel is one of the hidden treasures of Tamil Nadu. It has 100 rooms and the sheer size of the marriage hall, tall pillars, beautiful balconies, and hidden lofts the size of a large room in the false ceilings are features typical of a bygone era of gracious living. Here we learn the living style of the Chettiars, the business tycoons of the South who made their livelihood in Burma in the last century. For our included dinner this evening, we enjoy a food tour in Madurai. Table and chairs are typically set out on pavements after 7pm each evening. Steaming idlis, egg dosas, kari dosas and parottas can be found here until dawn. Not only does the food taste great, all our senses are alerted by the clanging sounds of the food being prepared.

In the afternoon we have a boat ride through the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary. It is one of the finest sanctuaries for studying the Indian Elephant in its home environment. Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary has a picturesque lake at the heart of the sanctuary. Formed with the building of a dam in 1895, this reservoir meanders around the contours of the wooded hills, providing a permanent source of water for the local wildlife. In the lap of the mountains, the environment of the sanctuary is like a canvas of many shades. The fresh air of the moist deciduous forest gives one a chance to experience the peace and serenity and long to return for more. The rest of the day is at leisure to relax or explore the local village. Dinner this evening is at the hotel.

Accommodation: Cardamom County, Kumily or similar

17.11.23 Periyar – Munnar

After a relaxed breakfast we depart on a four hour drive to Munnar. Munnar is situated at the confluence of three mountain streams at an altitude of approximately 1600m above sea level. This hill station was once the summer resort of the British Government in South India. Sprawling tea plantations, picture-book towns, winding lanes and holiday facilities make this a popular resort town. Munnar also has the highest mountain peak in South India, Anamudi, which towers over the area at a height of 2,695 metres.

Upon arrival in Munnar we check into our hotel and have an included lunch.

In the afternoon we visit a tea plantation. If time permits, we will also visit the local market. Dinner tonight is at the hotel.

Accommodation: Fragrant Nature or similar

18.11.23 Munnar – Kumarakom

(B/D)

Today we check out of the hotel and commence our 4½ hour drive to Kumarakom. Kumarakom is called ‘One of the Ten Paradises on Earth’ by National Geographic Traveller. Kumarakom is a stunningly beautiful cluster of backwaters and fishing villages set against the backdrop of the Vembanad Lake in Kerala. This tranquil emerald peninsula is part of the Kuttanad region and is 13km from Kottayam.

An enchanting backwater destination, Kumarakom is truly one of the gems of Kerala, offering travellers exotic sights of flora and fauna, boat cruises and fishing experiences. The area has gorgeous palms, coconut groves, lush paddy fields, kettuvalloms (traditional rice barges), rafts and canoes, rich marine life and panoramic views of the backwaters with their intricate waterways and canals. The rest of the day is at leisure. Dinner this evening is at the hotel.

Accommodation: Lakesong Resort, Ammankari Road or similar

19.11.23 Kumarakom – Allepey

(B/L/D) This morning after breakfast we board our private houseboat(s) for a cruise through the backwaters of Allepey, which is one of the lowest lying areas in India. The Kuttanad region of Kerala is called the rice bowl of the state, where the rice is actually grown on water-filled fields reclaimed from the sea. The area has endless stretches of paddy fields, small streams and canals, bridges, a silver beach, serene lagoons and emerald coconut palms. The town has at least six navigable canals that are its lifeline, connecting the city to the intricate thread of backwater trails and earning it the name 'the Venice of the East'. Allepey lies between the Arabian Sea and a vast network of rivers flowing into it, explaining its unique blend of fresh and saltwater eco-systems. Traditionally, the Kettuvalloms were old barges used to ferry rice and spices. Today they are modified houseboats equipped with comfortable facilities, giving guests a unique way to explore the gorgeous backwaters. On the cruise we will likely see villagers go about their traditional occupations such as fishing and agriculture.

Each boat has a fully equipped kitchen and an experienced cook to prepare authentic Kerala cuisine with seafood specialities and fresh vegetables. The waterways of Kerala play a major role in the economy of the state as they link remote villages and islands with the mainland. Lunch and dinner are included today.

Accommodation: Evergreen Superior Houseboat or similar

20.11.23 Allepey – Cochin

(B/D) After breakfast this morning we say goodbye to our houseboat and proceed on a two hour drive to Cochin. Cochin is situated on the south-west coast of the Indian Peninsula in Kerala. Its importance over the centuries as a strategic maritime centre has earned it the name 'Queen of the Arabian Sea'. Cochin is also called the 'Gateway to Kerala'. Over the centuries the Arabs, British, Chinese, Dutch and Portuguese have left their imprint on the trade, history, heritage, culture and development of the city in the form of a rich and cosmopolitan legacy. Cochin is perfectly flanked by the stunning Western Ghats mountain range to the east and the lovely Arabian Sea to the west.

Upon arrival in Cochin we check into the hotel for an overnight stay. This evening we enjoy an enthralling performance of Kathakali, which is an ancient dance drama of Kerala and is one of the oldest theatre forms in the world. Performances are traditionally based on themes from Hindu mythology, especially the two epics, the Ramayana and the Mahabharata. Kathakali has an unbelievably elaborate make-up ritual that takes hours to complete. The colours used in the make-up are determined by the nature of the characters depicted by the dancers. Dinner this evening is at the hotel.

Accommodation: Kochi Marriott Hotel or similar

21.11.23 Cochin – Singapore

(B/D) This morning we enjoy a tour of Cochin. The Fort Kochi Heritage Zone is wonderfully cosmopolitan, with a beautiful mix of Malayali Christians, Hindus, Muslims and Jews. Fort Kochi is where the influence of the Portuguese, the Dutch and the British can be seen the most. The area has charming old-world streets and buildings. See the ancient Chinese fishing nets (Cheenavala), distinctly unique to Cochin. It is believed that traders from China introduced these nets here. Remarkably, outside of China, these nets are found only in Cochin. The St. Francis Church is said to be India's oldest European church. It was originally built by Portuguese friars in 1503. Vasco da Gama was buried in this church in 1524 before his remains were moved to Portugal. The Dutch Palace (Mattancherry Palace) was built by the Portuguese in 1555 as a gift for the Maharaja of Cochin. It was renovated again by the Dutch in 1663. Now the palace houses rare royal memorabilia and artefacts and a series of fine murals depicting scenes from the Hindu epics Mahabharata and Ramayana.

We have a 6pm late checkout from our hotel rooms before being transferred to a restaurant near the airport for a farewell dinner. After dinner we are transferred to the airport for our flights home. All passengers depart Cochin at 11.05pm on SQ 535, arriving in Singapore at 6.10am the next morning (22.11.23).

22.11.23 Singapore – Australia

Sydney passengers depart Singapore at 7.05am on SQ 241, arriving in Sydney at 5.55pm. Melbourne passengers depart Singapore at 7.45am on SQ 207, arriving in Melbourne at 6.10pm.

Brisbane passengers depart Singapore at 9.55am on SQ 245, arriving in Brisbane at 7.45pm.
