27.03.18 Chau Doc - Phnom Penh

(B/L/D)

Depart Chau Doc for Phnom Penh, a 4 hour boat trip on the Mekong River with 'Blue Cruiser' or 'Victoria', crossing the water border. We arrive in Phnom Penh approximately 1.00pm. Upon arrival in Phnom Penh we are met by our Cambodian tour guide and transferred a short distance for lunch at a local restaurant near the port. Our luggage will be sent separately to the hotel.
Phnom Penh was known as the 'Pearl of Asia' and like much of Cambodia was a vibrant and culturally developed city until the 1960's. Suffering at the hands of the Khmer Rouge, the city was once evacuated by Pol Pot's army and became a ghost town. Today's Cambodia is a country on the move, but still many years behind the development of neighbouring Vietnam and Thailand, though ever-changing. This afternoon we take a traditional method of Phnom Penh transport, the cyclo, to visit some of the sights. The cyclo is used by people to drop their children at school or do their market shopping. It is also a fun way to get around short distances and see the city from a different angle. We visit the Royal Palace which was built by King Norodom in 1866 on the site of the old town. The Palace is made up of a number of structures within a pagoda-style compound, one of which is the Silver Pagoda. The Silver Pagoda takes its name from the 5,000+ silver tiles and the building itself holds a number of national treasures, perhaps most notably a life-sized gold Maitreya Buddha decorated with 9,584 diamonds. There is also a small 17th century Emerald Buddha made from baccarat crystal. Afterwards we transfer to the hotel for check in. This evening we enjoy dinner at the hotel.

Accommodation: Sokha Phnom Penh

28.03.18 Phnom Penh - Siem Reap

(B/L/D)

This morning we depart for Siem Reap by coach. Travel time is around 6 hours, not including stops. After a couple of hours we reach the town of Skuon, where it is possible to see the local speciality of deep fried tarantula being sold at the local market. Cambodians are fond of this tasty snack and sometimes stop to buy a few when passing. International tourists are usually content to take photos, rather than to sample this unusual delicacy. We continue to the small and interesting Santuk Silk Farm, which was founded by a Vietnam War veteran. It is here that we will enjoy a tasty Khmer lunch. A short guided tour of the silk farm will provide insight into all stages of production, from the silk worm to the end product. Afterwards we continue to the Spean Praptos Bridge which dates from the Khmer Empire. Apparently the Khmer Rouge tried to blow up this bridge on more than one occasion, but were repelled by the sheer strength of the structure. We arrive in Siem Reap in the late afternoon and check in to the hotel. Dinner tonight is at the hotel.

Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

29.03.18 Siem Reap

(B/D)

This morning we take a remork (similar to the Thai tuk tuk) to visit Angkor Wat, the most famous of all the temples on the plain of Angkor and the largest religious building in the world. Angkor Wat is a temple complex built for King Suryavarman II in the early 12th century as his state temple and capital city. Angkor Wat is the most significant and best preserved temple complex in the area. It is the only one to have remained a significant religious centre since its foundation, first Hindu and then Buddhist. The temple complex covers 81 hectares and is comparable in size to the Imperial Palace in Beijing. A magnificent moat surrounds the temple on all sides with a long causeway providing access. An alternative eastern entrance is the best way to start a morning tour and avoid the crowds. Take your time to look at more than 3000 Apsara (heavenly maiden) carvings. Following this we head to the ancient city of Angkor Thom, which is surrounded by walls with a height of 8 metres and length of 12 kilometres. This city was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. Five huge gates with huge stone faces provide access. Angkor Thom holds many important monuments, including the Bayon Temple, which we will visit.

Afterwards we return to the hotel and take a break.

In the afternoon we visit Artisan d'Angkor, a project established to support Cambodian art and crafts. We visit the workshop and see stone carvings, wooden sculptures and paintings all being produced and many of which can be purchased. We then return to the Angkor Zone and visit Ta Prohm, a unique temple that has been left to nature with trees and vines growing amongst the structures. This is one of the most photogenic temples in the Angkor area and gained fame as the 'Tomb Raider' temple, after featuring in the Angelina Jolie movie. Enjoy walking along the sandy paths and under huge Banyan trees as we explore this 12th century temple. Afterwards we return to the hotel to freshen up. This evening we enjoy a dinner whilst watching a show of Apsara dancing, first performed in the court of kings at Angkor. A set menu of Khmer cuisine will be served as we enjoy the show.

Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

30.03.18 Siem Reap

(B) Today is at leisure to relax or further explore Siem Reap. Access to the town is quite easy with a tuk tuk costing USD $2-3 per way.
Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

31.03.18 Siem Reap - Singapore

(B/L) This morning we have an optional tour at no additional cost to visit the 'Old Market' in the centre of Siem Reap. The market has a fruit and vegetable section where many local restaurants and hotels will come to pick up goods. The market also includes a tourist section which has a wide selection of souvenirs. We then enjoy a late lunch at one of the very best restaurants serving traditional Khmer food. Located on the Riverside the restaurant has a relaxing tropical garden and smaller indoor dining area. The menu will take us on an exploration of many recipes almost lost from the Kingdom.

Following lunch we are transferred to the airport for our flights home. Depart Siem Reap at 4.10pm on Silk Air flight MI 615, arriving in Singapore at 7.15pm.

Brisbane passengers depart Singapore at 9.30pm on SQ 235, arriving in Brisbane at 7.05am the next morning (01.04.18).

Sydney passengers depart Singapore at 8.20pm on SQ 221, arriving in Sydney at 5.55am the next morning (01.04.18).

Melbourne passengers depart Singapore at 10.00pm on SQ 227, arriving in Melbourne at 7.15am the next morning (01.04.18).
