Day 2 – Cook & the Nullarbor

Upon waking, set your sights on the vast horizon beyond the window. You have arrived on the edges of the sweeping Nullarbor Plain. Big blue skies await you, the ancient stillness of the desert landscape broken only by a mob of friendly kangaroos or the occasional circling bird of prey. By the time you have refreshed and enjoyed a leisurely breakfast, you will be stepping off the train for a short stop in Cook. Once a bustling railway community, now effectively a ghost town, Cook gives new meaning to the expression 'middle of nowhere'. Get a sense of the Nullarbor's intense remoteness as you wander through Cook's abandoned buildings and learn more about the town's intriguing history.

03.12.19 (B/L/D)

Day 3 – Adelaide & Broken Hill

By morning's light, your desert views have made way for the rolling South Australian countryside. Arriving in Adelaide, prepare yourself for an entertaining stop in a beautifully designed city renowned for international arts festivals, pop-up bars and laneway restaurants. Feast upon the sights, scents and tastes of the extraordinary Adelaide Central Market, a mecca for locally-grown produce, multicultural treats and unexpected gourmet delights. Listen to the cheerful calls of the market stall holders and let your gaze wander from the delicious cured meats hanging in the delicatessens to the bright pyramids of carefully arranged fruits and the sweet scented goods on display in the bakeries and confectioners.

Alternatively, board a coach for a highlights tour of Adelaide taking in views of the world-renowned Adelaide Oval from Montefiore Hill and stopping in at the popular Haighs Chocolate Factory. Venture into the Adelaide Hills for an unrivalled panorama from Mt Lofty Lookout before heading back to the train.

Over lunch, watch as pastures dissolve into tough mallee scrub on approach to Broken Hill. Known as the Silver City, Broken Hill is one of Australia's legendary Outback bases defined by its wide streets, country pubs and ties with the Royal Flying Doctors Service and School of the Air. Here, you can visit the late Pro Hart's art studio or head for the Miners' Memorial where the stark reality of working in Broken Hill's mines over the ages is writ large. The striking architectural edifice and spectacular view over the city add emotional weight to the list of more than 800 miners who lost their lives on the job.

Strap yourself in for an adrenalin-fuelling ride on the steepest-incline railway in the world before catching your breath and journeying back to the top of the mountain in a cable car. Take in the panoramic views of the three Sisters from within the Skyway and further immerse yourself in the scenic Jamison Valley.

After all this excitement and mountain air, you will no doubt have worked up an appetite. Drive on to The Lookout Restaurant where you will enjoy lunch with award-winning beers and wines, not to mention more picturesque views.
