Today we will explore Zadar, the ancient capital of Dalmatia. The city is located along the Dalmatian coast. It offers a variety of architectures and styles, where Corinthian columns stand alongside Romanesque churches. Zadar was part of Italy until 1947 and one still finds Italian influence.

We will also see the Roman Forum from the 2nd century BC, the 9th century pre Romanesque Church of St Donatus and St Elias Church. 16.10.18 Budva - Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina

(B/D)

Today we drive inland up the mountains, where we cross the border into Bosnia and Herzegovina. We take a breathtaking drive along the River Neretva and through the Bosnian Mountains. In the afternoon we will tour Mostar, a picturesque town, more than 5 centuries old and made famous by the old Turkish bridge that once was the only means uniting the city over the emerald waters of the Neretva River. The bridge always played a central role in the lives of its inhabitants. The original bridge was wooden, built at the beginning of the 15th century, and it was a very important link of the two parts of Bosnia and Herzegovina, not only strategically but also in respect of trade linking the sea to the interior. This soon brought the urgent need to replace the old unsafe wooden chain bridge with a new bridge that could meet the growing requirements. The construction of the bridge began in 1557 and continued for nine years, making it the masterpiece of Hajrudin, and under the close observation of the Caliph, Suleyman The Magnificent. We have a two night stay in Sarajevo. This evening we have an included dinner.

17.10.18 Sarajevo

(B/D)

We start with a walking tour of Sarajevo. This magical town with all its charms takes us instantly back to the Ottoman days as we visit beautiful Ottoman mosques, old quarters and the authentic Turkish 'carsija', with its oriental sweets shops, cafes and traditional Bosnian food. Sarajevo is also a town in which, for more than 400 years, mosques, orthodox churches, Roman-Catholic Churches and synagogues have been standing together. Dinner tonight is included.
