(B/L/D) We have an early breakfast this morning and depart Queenstown by 7.15am for Strahan, which was once a fishing village and is now a major tourism hub on the wild West Coast. Today's adventure is the Gordon River Cruise. We will witness the magical reflections of the Gordon River as we cruise through Hell's Gate, which is the harbour entrance to the Great Southern Ocean. The name relates to the original convict's claim that it was their 'entrance to Hell' being the Macquarie Harbour Penal Station on Sarah Island.
To finish, we explore the ruins of the penal colony on Sarah Island. Our cruise includes main deck central seating and a delicious chef prepared buffet lunch. We return to Strahan around 2.30pm and have some time at leisure. During this time we suggest a visit to the Huon Pine Sawmill located on the Strahan Esplanade or a walk to Hogarth Falls from People's Park in Strahan. This is a pretty waterfall through a tranquil mixed forest.
This evening we enjoy Australia's longest running play, 'The Ship That Never Was', telling the hilarious and dramatic true tale of the last Great Escape from Sarah Island, performed at the Richard Davey Amphitheatre at 5.30pm. After some time exploring Stanley, we will travel back along the coastline, stopping at Burnie, a town with a large industrial past that has been reinvented to a vibrant and creative city on a beautiful stretch of the coastline.

We continue our drive along the 'Cradle to Coast Tasting Trail'. Indulge away with stops at Ashgrove Cheese, Anvers Chocolate and Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm whilst passing through the town of Sheffield, known as the 'Town of Murals'.

The custom-built yellow boats are safe and comfortable with open-air seating to enjoy an excellent all-round view. The included lunch specialises in freshly caught local and Tasmanian fish dishes designed to satisfy the hunger that comes from cruising waters around Bruny Island. We return to Hobart around 5.30pm. Tour Difficulty Ratings & Advice

To ensure that you select the right tour for you, Macleay Valley Travel has provided a set of tour difficulty and fitness recommendations for our tours. The ratings, from 1, being the easiest, to 5 the most strenuous, will give you a good idea of what is reasonably required for you to be able to participate on each tour. Most tours require a moderate to good level of fitness, however there are others that are quite challenging. For your enjoyment of the tour, and also the enjoyment of your fellow travellers, please consider whether or not the suggested difficulty level for the tour you are interested in is compatible with your health and fitness.

Tour Difficulty Level 3

This tour rating typically involves a good level of physical activity, such as ascending stairs, getting into a bathtub shower, being responsible for your own luggage at airports and some hotels, boarding boats and walking distances of 500-1000 metres at a time over possible uneven ground and/or cobblestone streets. Some early departures and walking tours of considerable distances should be expected on tours with this rating, especially on the day at Cradle Mountain.
