12.02.25 Phnom Penh

(B/L)

This morning we visit the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum and the Killing Fields of Choeung Ek. During the Pol Pot regime, Tuol Sleng, formerly a high school, was converted to a detention centre known as S21. After interrogation and often torture, prisoners were transferred to Killing Fields where they were often tortured again and brutally killed. Choeung Ek was a Chinese Cemetery before it became the Khmer Rouge's most well-known Killing Field. The remains of almost 9000 bodies have been excavated from mass graves in this area. Today Choeung Ek is a memorial site for Cambodians and visitors from all over the world to pay their respects to those lost. A memorial Stupa has been erected and displays over 5000 human skulls, bones and clothes of the victims. During the Khmer Rouge years, thousands of Cambodians were tortured and imprisoned in detention centres around the country. The visit is a profoundly moving and also depressing experience. However the insight into the cruel Khmer Rouge regime is educational and part of understanding Khmer culture as it is today. Following this we enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch we continue to Champey Academy of Arts where traditional drawing, music and dance are taught. Enjoy watching the young students practice classical Apsara dancing. The academy is a local Non Government Organisation (NGO) that seeks to preserve traditional arts on a free basis for poor students and a visit is sure to put a smile on our faces as we see how the children seek to improve their lives by being artistically creative.

Later this afternoon we visit The Royal Palace, built in 1866 by King Norodom. The palace is made up of a number of structures within a pagoda-style compound, one of which is The Silver Pagoda. The Silver Pagoda takes its name from more than 5000 silver tiles and the building itself holds a number of national treasures, perhaps most notably are a life-sized gold Maitreya Buddha decorated with 9584 diamonds and weighing in at 90kg. There is also a small 17th century Emerald Buddha made from baccarat crystal. This evening is at leisure.

Accommodation: Poulo Wai Hotel & Apartment

13.02.25 Phnom Penh – Kratie

(B/L/D)

After breakfast we have a two hour drive from Phnom Penh to Kompong Cham.

Kompong Cham is a slow paced provincial capital set on the banks of the Mekong

River. The town is dominated by the impressive Kizuna Bridge that spans the Mekong which was a gift from the Japanese.

In the town we take a look at the bamboo bridge, which crosses to a small island called Koh Paen. Each year the bridge is constructed to cross to Koh Paen during the dry season. A modern bridge has now replaced its main use but it is still constructed each year for tourists, bicycles and motorbikes. The construction of the bamboo bridge is privately funded, which means it is possible it may not be built in 2024.

We stop for an included lunch at Smile Restaurant in Kompong Cham, which serves as a training centre for disadvantaged youths. The non-profit café is run by the Cambodian NGO, Buddhism for Social Development Action (BDSA).

Afterwards we have a pleasant two hour drive following the Mekong River to Kratie. Kratie town has a distinctly French feel to it with some colonial buildings still remaining. The riverfront is the place to watch the action, be that the life on the river or the street markets that begin there. Upon arrival we check into our hotel before our included dinner. Please note that our accommodation this evening is basic due to the remote location of this small town.

Accommodation: Mekong Dolphin Hotel

14.02.25 Kratie – Kampong Thom

(B/L/D)

After breakfast at a local restaurant, we drive out of Kratie for a local boat cruise in search of the rare Irawaddy dolphins. These creatures spend most of their time in ‘dolphin pools’ or certain stretches of the Mekong River. Spottings are frequent. Once our boatman spots the dolphins he will switch off the motor so we can watch them coming to the surface. The dolphin trips usually last around 1½ hours and are part of a community initiative to provide employment for the boatmen and also to protect the animals.

We return to Kratie town to take a walk through the sprawling market, where we’ll see some vegetables and herbs that are typically not found in Australia, some of which do not have an English name.

We have an included lunch at a hotel restaurant in the nearby small town of Chhlong. The restaurant, Le Relais de Chhlong, opened in 1916 as a Customs House. The history of the building is rich and diverse with many years left abandoned to nature. Following lunch we have a four hour drive along the Mekong passing many old wooden houses and Cham villages on the way to Kampong Thom. The Cham originated from Champa, a 7th century kingdom that was located in what is today central and southern Vietnam and lasted until 1832, before being conquered and annexed. Today the Cham can be found living mostly along the banks of the Mekong and Tonle Sap Rivers and may number as many as 500,000 in Cambodia making them the largest minority in the country. As we cross over the Mekong we can expect to see more rural scenery before arriving into Kampong Thom for an overnight stay. Dinner this evening will be served at the hotel.

Accommodation: Glorious Hotel

15.02.25 Kampong Thom – Preah Vihear - Sra Em

(B/L/D)

We leave Kampong Thom on a 30km drive to Sambor Prei Kuk. We stroll around the sandy paths and forest that cover the impressive pre-Angkorian temple ruins of Sambor Prei Kuk. This former Chenla-era capital once boasted hundreds of temples. Today several brick structures remain and whilst not comparable to some of the Angkorian temples, they still offer some fine carvings in a quiet, atmospheric location. A local community guide will follow to provide some expert knowledge. Following the visit, our included lunch will be a simple Khmer meal provided by the local community at the entrance of Sambor Prei Kuk. This initiative, set up by a German development agency, has enabled a series of villagers to provide meals to tourists as part of a sustainable tourism program.

After lunch we get back on the main road and have a three hour drive to Preah Vihear Temple. At this point it is necessary to change to the specially fitted 4WD truck that can climb up the steep road to the temple.

Preah Vihear Temple is Cambodia's 2nd UNESCO World Heritage Site, after Angkor Wat. This temple and surrounding area have been claimed by both Cambodia and Thailand. However an international ruling has agreed that Cambodia is the rightful owner. Tensions have been high in the past but the last couple of years have seen the border area calm with a de-escalation of military presence.

Preah Vihear is one of the most spectacularly located temples in the world. From the summit there are sweeping views across Cambodia and into Thailand. Construction began with King Yasovarman in about 889AD. It was then added to by several other monarchs, including Suryavarman II, the builder of Angkor Wat. There are many temple ruins and steps to climb until the rewarding summit at 625m and its fantastic view.

After the visit we drive to the town of Sra Em, which is located 30km south of the temple of Preah Vihear. Upon arrival we check into the hotel for an overnight stay and included dinner. Please note that our accommodation this evening is basic due to the remote location of this small town.

Accommodation: Preah Vihear Jaya Hotel or similar

16.02.25 Sra Em - Siem Reap

(B/L/D)

Today we have a scenic 5 hour drive south to Siem Reap along a route that was the last stronghold of the Khmer Rouge and where their leader, Pol Pot died in 1998. We will stop at Ta Mok House, with the opportunity to learn more about the cruel Khmer Rouge regime.

We have an included lunch at a local restaurant in the town of Anlong Veng.

We arrive in Siem Reap in the mid/late afternoon, for a three night stay. This evening we enjoy an included dinner at the hotel.

Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

17.02.25 Siem Reap

This morning we take a remork (similar to the Thai tuk tuk) to begin our exploration of the Temples of Angkor, by visiting the ancient city of Angkor Thom. The site has many important monuments such as Bayon Temple, located in the exact centre. We continue to Ta Prohm, a unique temple that has been left to nature with trees and vines growing amongst the structures. This is one of the most photogenic temples in the Angkor area and gained fame as the 'Tomb Raider' temple, after featuring in the Angelina Jolie movie. Enjoy walking along the sandy paths and under huge banyan trees as we explore this 12th century temple.

We have lunch at a local restaurant within the Angkor Park. After lunch we learn about the famous rodents at the Apopo Visitor Centre. Landmines left over from three decades of war are still a problem for farmers and local people in the Cambodian countryside. Whilst the use of humans with metal detectors and mine detecting dogs have made a major impact, there is still plenty to do. Following the success of using large 'hero rats' in Angola and Mozambique, they have also been used in Cambodia since 2015. Not weighing enough to trigger a land mine when walked across, the rats are smart enough to smell the explosive and give a warning note to the handler. The mines can then be isolated and removed. At the centre we take a short tour to learn about their work, with a short demonstration by a mine detecting 'hero rat'.

This evening we enjoy dinner whilst watching a show of Apsara dancing, first performed in the court of kings at Angkor. The show includes a demonstration of the Cambodian martial art called bokator. A fresh and delicious menu of Asian cuisine will be served during the show.

Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

(B/L)

After breakfast we explore Angkor Wat, the largest religious building in the world. Angkor Wat is a temple complex built for King Suryavarman II in the early 12th century as his state temple and capital city. Angkor Wat is the most significant and best preserved temple in the area. It is the only one to have remained a significant religious centre since its foundation, first Hindu and then Buddhist. A magnificent moat surrounds the temple on all sides.

We return to Siem Reap town for an included lunch that supports a good cause. Haven is a training restaurant for vulnerable young adults from orphanages and safe shelters, as well as from very rural poor areas. By teaching them quality work skills as well as important life skills, these young people are supported during their transition to the real world, giving them a chance to step out of poverty. Lunch is a set western menu.

In the afternoon we learn about life on the majestic Tonle Sap Lake, the largest freshwater lake in South East Asia. The lake and its waters are the lifeblood of the country and millions of people depend on it. Located on the northern side of the lake lies the fascinating village of Kompong Khleang, one of the lesser visited villages. The village consists of a combination of stilted and floating houses. Our boat trip to the village is the perfect way to understand the extremities of life on the lake. The houses are up to 10 metres in height and during the dry season can be fully exposed as the water recedes. At the end of the rainy season the water rises so that only the upper stories are exposed. This makes a visit interesting at any time of the year. Our half day visit has seemingly endless opportunities for photography.

Accommodation: Tara Angkor Hotel

19.02.25 Siem Reap - Battambang

Today we leave Siem Reap on a three hour drive to Battambang. Battambang is a charming town with early 20th century French colonial architecture still prevalent and little modern development taking place. Arts and culture are being revitalised and galleries provide local artists the chance to present their work. Battambang is a slow-paced, small town and provides easy access to friendly villages and the surrounding countryside where much of the typical sightseeing takes place. Upon arrival in Battambang we have an included lunch at the hotel.

This afternoon we head 12km out of town to Phnom Sampeau. This limestone outcrop is home to a variety of temples and excellent views of the countryside dotted with palm trees and rice paddy fields. There is also a more sinister side as Phnom Sampeau is home to the Killing Caves, where Khmer Rouge executed prisoners. Many of them were thrown to their deaths through a skylight in the cave roof. Please note that Phnom Sampeau is only accessible by a staircase requiring a 30 minute uphill walk or by a steep paved road using local transport. We stay until dusk to catch the natural phenomenon of thousands of bats exiting a cave. They fly one by one out of the cave creating patterns in the sky. It is quite a spectacular sight to behold. We return to town and attend a circus performance at the renowned Phare Ponleu Selpak. More in the style of Cirque du Soleil than a traditional European circus, be amazed for an hour by a show of modern Cambodian tales told through dance, acrobatics, aerial acts and music. The performers are all students at the Phare training centre in Battambang, which provides a place for poor communities to express themselves using art.

Following the show we have an included dinner, before returning to the hotel.

Accommodation: Bambu Hotel

20.02.25 Battambang

This morning we take a short walking tour to see some of the oldest streets and the Psar Nat market in central Battambang. The market was once bombed by the Khmer Rouge. Today a local pizzeria stands at the site of the explosion. The narrow streets of the town have a lot of character and the buildings are better preserved than in most Cambodian cities.

Following this we drive out of the small town to visit some of the local villages. Our guide can show us several of the different small industries, from drying fish to preparing tasty 'grolan' and the making of rice wine and rice cakes.

We return to town to visit a local pagoda where a Buddhist monk will celebrate a blessing ceremony for you, wishing you good health and a safe journey, a very special experience, which includes chanting, prayers, incense and flower offerings.

After an included lunch at the hotel, we travel to the start of a replica train track, based on the original local freight service. The train or 'nori' consists of a wooden platform placed on four wheels and connected to a gasoline engine that powers the device. Used initially as a way of transporting goods between villages, today it is a popular way to transport tourists through the countryside with a little extra adrenalin added on a 7km trip. Please note that the future of the bamboo train is far from certain. Should this not be available, we will replace the train ride with additional village visits in the area.

This evening we head to Jaan Bai restaurant for dinner. This training and development restaurant is run by the Cambodian Children's Trust which is working to break the cycle of poverty in Battambang by empowering underprivileged children. Enjoy a healthy menu using seasonal organic produce with some of the best tastes from South East Asia combined with western influences. Jaan Bai is set in a French colonial building in the heart of Battambang.

Accommodation: Bambu Hotel

21.02.25 Battambang – Phnom Penh

(B/L/D)

We depart from Battambang this morning for a six hour drive to Phnom Penh (not including stops). En route we will see the scenic pottery village of Ondong Rossey, which is a very typical Cambodian village with beautiful rice fields and sugar palm trees in the surrounding countryside. Keep your eyes out in case one of the village men are climbing up bamboo ladders to take the rice wine or toddy from the trees.

We have an included lunch at a local restaurant on the way.

We reach Phnom Penh in the late afternoon and check in to our hotel for an overnight stay. Dinner this evening is at a local restaurant.

Accommodation: Poulo Wai Hotel & Apartment

22.02.25 Phnom Penh – Kampot - Kep

(B/L/D)

After an early breakfast we transfer to the train station to ride on Cambodia's only rail route. Following the civil war the railway was not maintained and all services stopped. Slowly the service is being renewed and one day it may be possible to travel to Bangkok and beyond by train. For today we will board the refurbished train for a scenic 4-5 hour ride to Kampot. Please note that the train service times are subject to change, and the train can only be booked shortly before our travel. Every effort will be made to travel by train, but in the event that it is not possible, alternate coach transportation will be provided.

On arrival in Kampot we have a short tour of the town which is home to some of the best examples of French colonial architecture to be found in Cambodia today though many of the buildings are in need of repair. Then we drive the short distance to Kep, with a stop en route at a pepper plantation and enjoy a set lunch at the restaurant.

This is followed by a tour of the plantation and learn about the difference between the green, black, white and red pepper corns.

Upon arrival in Kep we check in to our hotel for a two night stay. Kep used to be a thriving seaside town in the 1960s. Designed for the rich Khmer with huge colonial villas, mansions and royal residences, the town fell apart under the Khmer Rouge.

Today the town is revitalised as tourists once more visit Kep-sur-mer as the French called it. A small local beach, delicious seafood and an easily accessible national park are just some of the highlights of Kep. This evening we enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. Seafood is naturally on the menu!

Accommodation: Vakara Hotel

(B/L/D)

This morning we visit the famous Kep Crab Market. A very calm place where we can see crab and other seafood being sold, cooked and eaten. The crabs are kept in baskets in the shallow waters along the shore and if a market trader or local restaurateur arrives the baskets are pulled in and discussion begins on the quality and price. Busiest at weekends and public holidays there is also activity on weekdays. We drive to the pier to catch a private local boat across to Koh Tonsai or Rabbit Island as it is also known. On arrival at Rabbit Island there is time to relax and enjoy the beach and warm waters. A seafood BBQ will be prepared for our lunch, followed by some further time to relax. In the mid afternoon we return by boat to the mainland and transfer the short distance back to our hotel. This evening enjoy a farewell dinner at our hotel, with time to reflect on our adventures in Cambodia with our fellow travellers.

Accommodation: Vakara Hotel

24.02.25 Kep – Phnom Penh – Singapore
