08.08.25 Beijing

(B/D)

We have a late start today, to recover from our late evening flights.

We drive approximately 90 minutes to Mutianyu to visit the Great Wall of China. First built in the 6th century to ward off the northern Nomads, it was consolidated in the 14th century. As an important strategic pass it was frequently renovated and now it is one of the best preserved sections of the Great Wall. Our visit of the Great Wall includes a return cable car ride.

This evening we enjoy a wonderful acrobatic show, followed by an included Peking Duck dinner.

Accommodation: Mercure Beijing Downtown Hotel or similar

09.08.25 Beijing – Ulaanbaatar

(L/D)

Today we will have an early morning transfer to the airport. Depart Beijing at 8.40am on Air China flight CA 901, arriving in Ulaanbaatar at 10.50am.

We meet our guide and then commence a city tour, taking us through some of the principal sights. The tour takes us to the Genghis Khan Monument on Sukhbaatar Square and the National Museum of Mongolia, which has a number of fascinating displays of traditional Mongolian clothing and weaponry as well as exhibits charting the course of Genghis Khan's empire-building.

Like nearly one half of the Mongolian population, the capital city of Ulaanbaatar herself is a nomad. The city has changed locations more than twenty times over the past 350 years before taking root in her current location in a sweeping valley bounded by four sacred peaks, including Bogd Khan Mountain to the south. Indeed there aren't many world capitals in which you can ride a horse, visit a nomadic family and enjoy fine dining and luxurious spa treatments all in the same day. Ulaanbaatar today is a vibrant city of more than one million residents. The city reflects a close and sometimes amusing juxtaposition of nomadic traditions and modern society, perhaps best summarised by her skyline dotted with both gers (felt tents) and towering skyscrapers. The city's contrast can also be found among those who call it home, from traditional clothing clad herders, to Armani suit wearing business men and women, to a growing number of expatriates hailing from nearly every corner of the globe. Only in Ulaanbaatar might you find a horse cart bouncing down the central avenue alongside a Mercedes Benz, or a market selling both livestock and designer clothing. In short, there is something for everyone and always a sight to behold in Ulaanbaatar. Lunch and dinner today are included.

Accommodation: Best Western Premier Tuushin Hotel or similar

This morning we commence a six hour drive west towards Karakorum, which was the ancient capital of Mongolia. Karakorum was established by Genghis Khan in 1220 in the Orkhon valley. En route we stop to enjoy a nomadic show displaying the 19th century nomad lifestyle including migration, yak card, camel as well as the process of making felt and skin ropes, dairy production and more. We have lunch at a nearby ger camp and then continue onto Karakorum. We arrive in Karakorum in the early evening and check into our gers for a two night stay.

Accommodation: Secret of Silk Road Ger Camp or similar

11.08.25 Karakorum*(B/L/D)

For 140 years Karakorum served as the capital of the United Mongol tribes until it was destroyed by the Chinese troops in 1391. The remains of the capital that stood at the crossroads of the Silk Road are extensive underground archaeological assets and include two granite turtles that once stood at the main gate to the city. Four of these turtle sculptures were used to mark the boundaries of ancient Karakorum, acting as protectors of the city (turtles are considered symbols of eternity). In 1586, Erdene Zuu, the first Buddhist monastery in Mongolia was built on the ruins of the 13th century capital. The vast walls of 400m in length with 108 stupas surrounding the monastery are the symbol of Karakorum. Time and history were not merciful to Erdene Zuu Monastery but it still carries the traces of its former glory and provides a great insight into the rich religious and cultural past of Mongolia. We visit the legendary monastery Erdene Zuu, the first Buddhist monastery in Central Mongolia. We also visit the Museum of Karakorum and its surroundings including the Turtle Rock and the Phallic Stone. Before returning to our camp we also visit the newly established Erdenesiin Khuree calligraphy centre.

After breakfast we drive back to Ulaanbaatar, via Elsen Tasarkhai and Khugnu Khan Nature Reserve, where the gorgeous rocky mountains and mini versions of sand dunes are. Upon arrival in the reserve, we visit the Erdene Khamba Khiid Buddhist Surviving Temple from the Great Depression in the 1930's. We have an included lunch at a ger camp in the area and then continue onto Ulaanbaatar. We arrive in the early evening and check into the hotel for an overnight stay.

Early this morning we transfer to the airport for a 90 minute flight to the Gobi Desert. Upon arrival in Dalanzadgad town we meet our local drivers and have a 90 minute transfer to the ger camp where we will enjoy a late lunch. In the afternoon, explore the surrounding area and the Bayanzag Flaming Cliffs for dinosaur remains. There is time to enjoy walking in the rich saxaul forest, where you can try and find real dinosaur bones and their eggs.

The Gobi people take tremendous pride in their land, stretching nearly 2,000km across the bottom third of Mongolia. Over 250 species of plant grow on the territory of the aimag including medicinal plants and herbs such as astragalus, gentian, flavor nitracia, cynomorium, agriophyllum and trees such as saksaul, oleaster, populus diversifolia and elm. The rare animals include wild horses, wild sheep, ibex, wild camels, black tailed antelopes, white antelopes, lynxes, foxes, rabbits and badgers. While the largest aimag in the country has a population density of 0.3 persons per square km, it is home to one quarter or 93,000 of the world's domesticated two-humped Bactrian Camels. In 1921, American palaeontologist Roy Chapman Andrews found the dinosaur eggs that put Mongolia on the map of international adventure seekers and explorers. Andrews, first called Bayanzag 'The Flaming Cliffs' as he made vital finds of dinosaur eggs and skeletons at the base of the vivid red bluffs, which stand alone in a vast empty expanse of land and sky. Chapman himself was something of a rogue - said by some to be the man on whom the film character 'Indiana Jones' was based. He lived an adventurous, self-aggrandising life across much of this part of the world. At Bayanzag it is both the landscape and the rich dinosaur history which make this place very impressive. It is an intense evocation of Mongolia's great emptiness.

Following our visit we return to our camp for an overnight stay.

Accommodation: Gobi Mirage or similar

14.08.25 Khongor Sand Dunes

(B/L/D)

Today we have a 3 - 4 hour drive to the Khongor Sand Dunes, which are one of Mongolia's largest and most beautiful sand dunes, stretching over 180km in the arid Gobi Desert. En route we pass through vast desert badlands, which span out into the far distance where remote mountains line the horizon. Lone gers and nomads on camelback hang suspended in the mirages, whilst the desert floor is strewn with a range of colourful rocks and unusual minerals. This is the Gobi at its stark best. There are many opportunities to stop and take photographs of the landscapes and people. Upon our arrival in the ger camp we have an included lunch. We have an overnight stay at the camp.

Accommodation: Gobi Erdene or Buren Camp

15.08.25 Khongor Sand Dunes - Yolyn Am Gorge

En route we will visit the giant Chinggis Equestrian monument, which is the tallest equestrian statue in the world and the biggest landmark of Mongolia. The complex is located in the beautiful natural scenery on the bank of the River Tuul. The statue is 46m high including the 10m high foundation, and surrounded by columns, showing far sighted Genghis Khaan holding a golden whip in his right hand. A recreation area, restaurants and souvenir shops are located in the column surrounding the base of the statue and from here visitors will ascend to the exhibition hall using the elevator at the back of the horse. Visitors can walk to the head of the horse through the chest and neck to enjoy a panoramic view over the complex and surrounding area. Following this we continue to Gun-Galuut Nature Reserve, which is one of the most popular nature reserves in Mongolia. Gun-Galuut Nature Reserve is truly a marvellous combination of high mountains, colourful flowers, pretty lakes, rivers and wetlands with famous rare animal species. It is home to endangered wild mountain sheep, Argali big horns, white-napped crane, Siberian white crane, hooded crane and the rare black stork, Asian heron, whooper swan, swan goose and more. Upon arrival we transfer to our tourist camp for a two night stay. ## Tour Difficulty Ratings & Advice

To ensure that you select the right tour for you, Macleay Valley Travel has provided a clear set of tour difficulty and fitness recommendations for our tours. The ratings, from 1, being the easiest, to 5 the most strenuous, will give you a good idea of what is reasonably required for you to be able to participate on each tour. Most tours require a moderate to good level of fitness, however there are others that are quite challenging. For your enjoyment of the tour, and also the enjoyment of your fellow travellers, please consider whether or not the suggested difficulty level for the tour you are interested in is compatible with your health and fitness.

1	2	3	4	5

Tour Difficulty Level 4

This tour rating typically involves an above average level of physical activity, such as ascending stairs, getting into a bathtub shower, being responsible for your own luggage at airports and hotels, walking distances of up to 2 kilometres at a time over possible uneven ground. Walking tours of considerable distances should be expected on tours with this rating as well as early departures. The beds used within the gers can often be hard and hot water at the sites is not always reliable. Unfortunately this tour rating is not recommended for individuals who cannot walk unaided.

The camp information will give you an idea of the accommodation type and standards.

The camps are subject to change, but we aim to provide a similar standard where possible.

Secret of Silk Road Ger Camp

Secret of the Silk Road camp was built to reflect the design of Uguudei king's palace Tumen Amgalant Ordon from 1236. The palace was described as the most luxurious and outstanding architectural site of the time. The camp has a garden, terrace, a restaurant and bar.

Gobi Mirage Ger Camp

The Gobi Mirage tourist camp was established in 2005 by a local couple who for over 10 years has been taking travelers to hidden corners of their mysterious homeland. The location allows easy access to the main attractions of the Gobi and the airport.

Gobi Erdene Camp

Gobi Erdene Camp is located in the Gurvan Saikhan National Park, the heart of the Gobi Desert. The camp is one of the best options for exploring the Khongoryn Els sand dunes, known as the Singing Dunes. The accommodation consists of rustic log cabins with private bathrooms. The camp has limited generator electricity during the evenings.

The main lodge is the social hub, with a restaurant serving Mongolian meals in addition to Western and Asian cuisine. There's also satellite TV and some games.

Explore the desolate beauty, abundant flora and unique bird life of the region. In the evening, enjoy uninterrupted views of the night sky.

Steppe Nomads camp, Gun-Galuut Nature Reserve

Steppe Nomads camp is located in the beautiful Gun-Galuut Nature Reserve, approximately 130 kilometres east of Ulaanbaatar. On the border of the Great Mongolian Steppes. Steppe Nomads is the main gateway to many highlights of eastern Mongolia, the birthplace of Genghis Khan. The camp features a dedicated yoga area, housed within a traditional Mongolian yurt, offering a serene environment for meditation and mindfulness practice.

We grow our own vegetables and the local nomad families keep the camp's kitchen stocked with fresh dairy products and meat from their livestock.
